Overview

Hospice Documentation – The Evidence of a Hospice's Daily Work

This discussion will focus on how the entire hospice admission is built on details, dates, facts, research, patient history, subjective and objective findings from all disciplines, the patient and family, and the patient's attending physician. Medical and legal implications and ethical issues will be included in this discussion. A comparison of paper vs electronic documentation will include standards of care and how interdisciplinary documentation collectively supports the hospice plan of care.
